B1, LA, PW	1954	01	VH 1320	0930-1020	1/11-3/3/2010	T R	E Bird	1.00
	Class Restriction to Include Freshman
	This seminar provides an in-depth exploration of what constitutes healthy eating, allowing for deeper understanding and application at a personal level. This seminar also examines how other topics (sleep, stress, relationships, and physical activity for example) can affect a person's eating behavior and life balance. Students explore behavior change and apply the concepts and techniques to a behavior of choice.
	HLTH 100 Science of Fitness
B1, LA, PW	1955	02	VH 1320	1030-1120	1/11-3/3/2010	T R	E Bird	1.00
	Class Restriction to Include Freshman
	This course explores physiological, biomechanical, and other scientific aspects behind the creation of an exercise prescription. Students design an exercise program specific to their goals and interests. Students also examine how other topics such as stress, sleep, relationships, and healthy eating affect their life balance.
	HLTH 100 A Balanced Life
B1, LA, PW	2103	03	MG 2007	1330-1420	1/11-3/3/2010	T R	B Krylowicz	1.00
	Class Restriction to Include Freshman
	This class focuses on key components of living a psychologically healthy and balanced life. The class emphasizes (but is not limited to) stress management, self-esteem, relationships, and managing emotions. The class examines topics in both an academic and personal way to help students better understand and apply concepts and techniques. The class also emphasizes how and why people change to help students make and/or maintain changes that are personally meaningful to them.
	HLTH 100 Spirituality
B1, LA, PW	2105	04	VH 1308	1200-1250	1/11-3/3/2010	T R	W Ashcraft	1.00
	Class Restriction to Include Freshman
	This seminar will provide opportunities for students to explore their spirituality. Spirituality is broadly defined as belief in a force that unites human beings and includes practices and disciplines that cultivate inner growth and development. Spirituality can include or be included in religion but may be completely independent of religion. In this seminar students will read and discuss assignments about spirituality, contract with the instructor individually to do something on a regular basis to enhance their own spirituality, and produce a reflection paper at the end of the eight-week period.

	In this movement class based upon the somatic therapy work of the Feldenkrais Method, students will use unusual physical exercises/ movement patterns to achieve a deeper awareness of their own bodies, and in turn train their brains. It looks like Yoga and offers many of the same benefits in increased flexibility and general well-being, but rather than focusing on bodily effects, Feldenkrais offers students a deepened unity between body and mind. Be "IN" your body, and "own" your own self!"

	Students will learn the proper techniques to perform the three lifts in Powerlifting: the squat, the benchpress, and the deadlift. Additionally, they'll learn how to develop and follow their own Powerlifting training program. Students will also focus on behavior change techniques to successfully make exercise a part of their lifetime physical activity program.

Spring 2010 Final Exam Schedule

All classes scheduled for two consecutive periods will take their examinations beginning the first hour of the scheduled time. For example, students in a class that is scheduled from 10:30 a.m.-11:50 a.m. on Tuesday and Thursday will start their final examination on Monday, May 3, 2010 at 9:30 a.m. Daytime classes beginning at a time not listed (e.g., TTH 8:30) should take their final exam at the closest listed preceding time. Evening class exams should be given during finals week at the regularly scheduled time, and as exception to Reading Day, Wednesday evening classes can take their final exam on Wednesday evening at the regular meeting time or Friday evening at 6:00pm.

Any student who has three examinations on the same day may appeal to the Provost/Vice President for Academic Affairs no later than Friday, April 2, 2010 for permission to take one examination at a rescheduled time.
