Jim Turner Retires After 27 Years of Service

Dr. James Turner, who retired in December, thought he would find himself with a lot of time on his hands. He was wrong. To help the kids in our community, he agreed to chair the Food for Kids Committee, which provides free sack lunches during the summer to children who engage in the supervised recreational activities sponsored by the city of Kirksville. He will work with the food pantry in Columbia, along with local churches and civic groups, to help raise funds to pay for the lunches. James has also has agreed to serve as secretary for the local chapter of

Phi Beta Kappa, a scholastic honor society, in which he was the founding secretary when the chapter was installed in 2000. Phi Beta Kappa is the nation's oldest undergraduate academic honor society in the liberal arts and sciences. Read more
