IN TRANSITION

THE EUROPE IN TRANSITION PROGRAM combines study and field trips using the setting of Brussels, Belgium; Paris, France; and Venice, Florence, Assisi and Rome, Italy. Focus will be the examination of current issues and problems in the European Union (EU), the economy, and the political and social climate. Brussels is one of the most important political centers of the European Union; Paris is the political, cultural, and economic capital of France; Venice is a city unique not only for its infinite artistic beauties but also for its urbanistic structure which continuously speaks a language all its own; Florence is a historic city with highly significant museums, craft industries, and government offices; Assisi was the birthplace of St. Francis, who founded the Franciscan religious order in the town in 1208; Rome is the Capital of Italy and location of important governmental and Vatican functions.

Course related field trips are scheduled to include the European Union Parliament, Bruges, Belgium's best preserved medieval city; field trip to the Louvre Museum, Impressionist's Museum, the Notre Dame Cathedral, the Eiffel Tower in Paris, to name a few; field trip to the St. Mark's Basilica and Ducal Palace in Venice; Bargello Museum, Duomo, Academia, Uffizi Museum in Florence; Rome Forum, the Colosseum, Vatican Museum, Civita di Bagnoregio, Orvieto, ruins of Pompeii and other historic sites in Italy. Seminars and lectures are slated as part of these field trips.

Chartered buses will transport the group for field trips in Belgium and Italy as indicated on the itinerary. In larger cities, certain field trips may be by public transport when feasible. Places to be visited include: Grand Place in Brussels and Bruges, Belgium; Louvre Museum, Palace of Versailles, Montmartre in Paris, France; Uffizi Museum, Vatican Museum, and numerous sites specified on the itinerary during stays in Venice, Florence, Assisi, and Rome, Italy.

INTRODUCING

Dr. Jason Lin, Professor of Business Administration and Program Director has been faculty sponsor of the Europe in Transition Program since 2004.

ADMISSION CRITERIA

Students in good standing are eligible to participate and will be admitted to the program in the order in which the applications are received. The deadline for program application is Friday, January 20, 2015.

REGISTRATION

To receive 6 hours of credit, students must attend pre-travel classes and lectures, must keep a journal during the overseas experience, and must complete a paper after returning. International experiences will be documented on each student's transcript, and will enrich the student's future class work and job opportunities.

Students must confer with their advisor regarding the applicability of course credit. University policy allows 6 hours of credit, of which 3 hours fulfill the intercultural requirement under the Liberal Studies Program.

FINANCIAL AID

This study abroad program is part of the course offerings of Truman State University. Therefore, enrolled students may apply for any student loans for which they would normally be eligible. The financial aid office will assist students with information about possible eligibility for Stafford and Cultural Loans. Scholarships for $1500, $2000 and $2500 will be awarded on a competitive basis. For more information, visit <https://secure.truman.edu/studyabroadscholarships>.
