

WELCOME TO TRUMAN STATE UNIVERSITY

International Student Pre-
Orientation Information & English
Placement Testing

Spring 2015

Orientation: There are many specific issues that international students face. Orientation is designed to help students understand their responsibilities concerning their immigration status, being good students, and learning about the resources available to them. You MUST understand the rules governing your student visa in order to remain a legal student in the United States.

Wednesday, January 7th, 2015

- Arrival – Be in Kirksville by 5pm. Note that you may not be able to arrive in the United States on January 7th and arrive in Kirksville on the same day. Travel within the U.S. can be very slow. We recommend allowing yourself one day to travel within the United States.

Thursday, January 8th, 2015

ENGLISH PLACEMENT TEST & ENGLISH REQUIREMENTS

About the English placement test:

- Everyone must take it unless:
 - You are from Canada, Australia or the UK (or English was the PRIMARY language spoken in your home)
 - You are concurrently enrolled with TLC
 - You are a graduate student
- All other students will take the English Placement Test during orientation.
