Application for Academic Exception to a Full Course of Study

This form must be completed and signed by both the international student and their academic advisor. Submit this form to the International Student Affairs Office a minimum of 3 days prior to dropping the course.

- Federal immigration regulations require all students in F-1 & J-1 immigration status carry a full course of study in the fall and spring semesters of every academic year and make normal progress towards their degree. Exceptions to the full-course of study requirement are limited to those listed below.

- Approval of an Academic Exception to a Full Course of Study is limited to once in a degree. The exception must be explained and recommended by the student’s academic advisor on this form. The explanation must show how the need to drop the course(s) falls under an allowed exception.

- The completed application must be submitted to the International Student Affairs Office for approval and entry into SEVIS (federal Student and Exchange Visitor Information System which tracks international students) at least of 3 days before the deadline for dropping the course(s).

- The student and advisor will be notified of the need for additional information or the approval and entry of the application in the SEVIS database. Only after being notified of the SEVIS entry, may the student drop the course(s). Dropping below full-time enrollment prior to obtaining SEVIS approval is a violation of the student’s legal status in the U.S. After approval, the student should drop the courses using TruView.
