

MISSOURI HALL NEWSLETTER

Fall Movie Classic Casablanca Presented by Hall Council

Grab a blanket or lawn chair and be sure to join everyone next Saturday (October 6) for this year's Fall Movie Classic. This year, the Hall Council will be showing the 1942 classic Casablanca. The movie was filmed while the world was embroiled in war, and some view is as an allegory of America's experience in entering the war.

The movie stars Humphrey Bogart as Rick, the American owner of a popular nightclub in Casablanca, Morocco, in World War II. He's on no one's side, but he is entrusted with two "letters of transit" that will help anyone escape Nazi controlled territory. The people who want them are Victor Laszlo, the Czech resistance leader, and Ilsa Lund, Laszlo's female companion. Ilsa and Rick seem to have a mysterious past. Will love or virtue prevail in these tough times?

To find out, bring your blanket or lawn chair and join us outside. We'll be projecting the film on the bell wall. The show starts at 7:00. The movie and the popcorn are free. Hope to see you for this MO Hall tradition.

Advice on Using the Heater in Your Room

As the temperature outside cools down, you'll likely be turning your heater on for the first time. It may smell as the dust on the heating coils is singed off. That's OK and is bound to happen the first time.

When selecting a temperature, you can use the full range of the dial. The air only comes out at one temperature. The dial just adjusts how often the unit kicks on. Most people will leave it in the blue all winter. Please help us reduce energy costs, put on a sweater, and turn the dial more in the blue. It just makes sense!

Remember Oktoberfest

Look around your room for four quarters. Find the dollar bill in your jeans pocket. Now you've got all you need for unlimited root beer on tap at the 2012 Oktoberfest here at Truman. This event will run from 4:00 to 7:00 on Friday, October 5, out on The Mall (the brick area between McClain and the Student Union). There will be live performances, free food, lots of games, and great times with your friends at this campus tradition. Be sure to save some time on your Friday calendar for this one.

September 27, 2012

"Here's looking at you, kid."
We'll see you at Casablanca on October 6.

Coming Up at MO Hall . . .

Preservation Hall Jazz

Tuesday, October 2 | 7:30 PM, 7:10 from MO Baldwin Auditorium | Pick up tickets at SUB

Oktoberfest 2012

Friday, October 5 | 4:00 - 7:00 PM
The Mall (between McClain and the SUB)

Movie Classic: Casablanca

Saturday, October 6 | 7:00 PM
Bell Wall in front of MO Hall | Free event

Voter Registrations Due

Wednesday, October 10 | Noon
Bring to either Zac's Office or the Courthouse

Lyceum Series Begins Season with Preservation Hall Jazz

To kick off it's 2012-2013 season, the Kohlenberg Lyceum Series is proudly welcoming back the Preservation Hall Jazz Band of New Orleans. This storied band is a celebration of the great jazz tradition in the United States. Founded in 1961, this band has been a New Orleans staple for decades. They've been regulars in Kirksville too, playing to sell-out crowds every time they come to Baldwin Hall. Want to go with MO Hall? Meet in the main lobby Tuesday at 7:10 PM.

This is the opening show for the Lyceum, an arts and entertainment series here at Truman with a history going back over 100 years. This year's other shows include a holiday a cappella concert by Tonic Sol Fa, Biloxi Blues performed by the Montana Repertory, and the Kremlin Chamber Orchestra.

Tickets are free for students. You can pick yours up from the SAB office, located on the first floor of the Student Union. This show will sell out. Grab your friends and get your tickets today. The show is Tuesday at 7:30 PM.

Notes From Around Missouri Hall

Laundry Room Code is Changing

In an effort to make sure the laundry rooms are only used by Missouri Hall residents, the code for the doors is changed monthly. To see the new code, be sure to check the email version of the newsletter that Zac sent out. Do not share this code with people who do not live in Missouri Hall. You all pay for the machines through your housing fees, so don't let others freeload around here. Also, giving out the code is a violation of the Student Code of Conduct. Ewww.

Midterm Break Coming Soon

Are you about ready for a break? One is coming soon. All students are out of classes Thursday, October 11 and Friday, October 12. MO will remain open, but with limited services.

Register to Vote for November Election

Decisions are made by those who show up. You have the right, privilege, and responsibility to vote as an informed citizen in November. We just need to get you registered.

If you are not yet registered to vote, or if you would like to move your registration to Kirksville, all you need is to fill out a registration card. Lots of places have them on campus. Zac even has them right in his office (MH 1206). Stop by, fill one out, and Zac will even run it back to the courthouse for you. Registrations must be turned in by October 10.

If you want to absentee vote from your home area, get in touch with your local officials now to request a ballot. Each local authority has different deadlines, so either contact them today or change your registration to here in Kirksville.