

Truman State University

Graduate Teaching/Research Assistantship (GTRA)

Accountancy, Biology, Education, English, and Music

Application for Current Graduate Students

Note that this application is for current students only; prospective students need only to indicate their interest for consideration on their online application for admission. This Application will not be considered unless all of the following materials have been submitted to the Graduate Office (McClain Hall 203):

- Three Letters of Recommendation (Applicants should not use the three letters that were submitted on their behalf for admission, but should obtain new ones.)
- Personal statement in which you indicate what graduate studies at Truman can contribute to your personal and professional development, and also what you can contribute to Truman. Include information on any honors, publications, and/or special competencies.

Note: GTRAs are not eligible for any other university employment during the term of their contract.
