

Inclement Weather Plan fall 2017

The weather in Northeast Missouri changes quickly during the winter months. The December ceremony will be held indoors but in the event of inclement weather, an announcement regarding the procession for both faculty and students will be posted on the Truman State University webpage. The only effect this may have on the ceremony would be in regards to travel and parking or walking on campus.

Updated 06-SEP-2017