TRUMAN STATE UNIVERSITY FOUNDATION

Cultural Loan Policy

Funds for student loans are made available by contributions from alumni and friends of the University. An example of the generosity of Truman's alumni is a significant gift given by James and Helen Heffern to provide financial assistance in the form of student loans. Dr. James Heffern received a B.S. from Truman in 1926 and a D.D.S. in 1932 from the University of Missouri-Kansas City. Helen Heffern received her B.S. from the University of Kansas, followed by her M.A. from Columbia University in New York. Dr. and Mrs. Heffern were truly dedicated to education-teaching in Missouri, Iowa, Nebraska, Illinois and North Carolina. Gifts from alumni and friends, like the Hefferns, enable many students to obtain loans in order to further their education.

All loans are approved by the Truman State University Foundation loans committee. The committee reserves the right to waive certain terms and conditions or add requirements depending on the circumstances. Applications are available in the Financial Aid Office, McClain 103.

General Eligibility

Loans will be available to students:

- A.) Who are currently enrolled at Truman State University on a full-time basis;
- B.) Who have completed at least twelve credit hours of coursework at the University;
- C.) Who demonstrate the ability and/or potential to repay the loan on a timely basis;
- D.) Who agree to treat such loans as debts to the University and to accept the same sanctions and penalties as imposed by the University for delinquent student accounts.

The maximum outstanding amount of Foundation loan funds (i.e., Short-Term, Long-Term, Cultural, Access, etc.) any one student receives should not exceed $12,000 at any given time

A limited number of cultural loans may be authorized to encourage participants in "study abroad" programs. The maximum loan amount is not to exceed $6,000 total. Costs which may be covered include tuition, room and board, books and supplies, transportation and limited personal costs.

Cultural loans are available to students who meet the general eligibility requirements and, in addition, who meet at least one of the following standards:

- Earned at least a 2.5 cumulative grade point average in courses taken at the University, or
- Earned at least a 2.5 grade point average in foreign language courses taken at the University, or
- Enrolled in a foreign language class at the University for which a "study abroad" experience is either required or strongly recommended. Priority will be given to students enrolled in a Truman sponsored cultural trip.

Estimated financial assistance is all federal, state, institutional (school), private, and other sources of assistance used in determining eligibility for most Title IV student financial aid, including amounts of financial assistance used to replace the expected family contribution. The student's estimated financial assistance is determined by the school and may be obtained from the school's financial aid office.

A period of enrollment is the academic year, academic term (such as semester, trimester, or quarter), or the number of weeks of instructional time for which the applicant is requesting the loan.

A private education loan is a loan provided by a private education lender that is not a Title IV loan and that is issued expressly for postsecondary education expenses, regardless of whether the loan is provided through the school that the student attends or directly to the borrower from the private education lender. A private education loan does not include (1) An extension of credit under an open-end consumer credit plan, a reverse mortgage transaction, a residential mortgage transaction, or any other loan that is secured by real property or a dwelling; or (2) An extension of credit in which the school is the lender if the term of the extension of credit is 90 days or less or an interest rate will not be applied to the credit balance and the term of the extension of credit is one year or less, even if the credit is payable in more than four installments.
