Faculty/Staff Wellness Fair

The first Faculty/Staff Wellness Fair will take place March 19 in the Student Union Building. There are concurrent sessions scheduled from 8:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m. in Student Union Building Rooms 319 and 320. Morning sessions will be repeated in the afternoon.

Free heel scans for bone density and spirometry screening for pulmonary function will be offered by the Northeast Missouri Regional Medical Center (NMRMC) from 10 a.m.-2:30 p.m. in SUB Room 322.

The NMRMC will also provide information about the Healthy Women Program, the Volunteer Program and Orthopedic Surgery and General Surgery Services.

To register, go to the Human Resources Web site, click on Program Registration at <http://hr.truman.edu/register/classlist.asp>. All presentations are free, but pre-registration is required for the classes.

Faculty and staff are encouraged to complete a Health Risk Appraisal (HRA) as part of the Wellness Fair. Laptop computers and assistance for interested faculty/staff to complete the HRA will be available between 9:30 a.m.-2:20 p.m. in SUB Room 322.

The schedule is available online at <http://trumantoday.truman.edu/FSWellnessFairSchedule08.doc>. The session descriptions are available online at <http://trumantoday.truman.edu/FSWellnessFairDescriptions08.doc>. ## Women's Swimming Wins Seventh National Championship

The Bulldog women's swimming team won the 2008 NCAA Division II Swimming & Diving Championship at the Mizzou Aquatics Center March 15 in Columbia, Mo. This makes seven national championships in eight years for the Truman women. Truman won with 461.5 points to Drury's 449 points.

All 14 women's swimmers earned all-America honors. Kate Aherne led the way with eight all-America titles, while Erika Anderson and Molly Polette each grabbed six. Kendra Brunkow, Emily Greenwood and Emily Pufall each grabbed five.

Members of the men's team also earned all-America honors. Jason Stokes, Alex Totura and Adam Pruess, walked away with six all-America honors, while Peter McCall nabbed three and Andrew McCall had two. The Truman men scored 48 points and finished in 20th place overall.

New Board of Governors Members Appointed

Ut. Governor Peter Kinder, serving as acting governor, appointed two new members of the Truman State University Board of Governors to fill the expired terms of Wilma Maddox of Macon, Mo., and Randa Rawlins of Columbia, Mo.

The full Missouri Senate confirmed the appointments of Mike Greenwell of Shelbina, Mo., and Karen S. Haber of Kansas City, Mo.

Greenwell is a partner in the law firm of Greenwell & Wilcox. He holds a bachelor's degree in agriculture from Truman State University and a juris doctorate from the University of Daytona. Greenwell previously served on the Missouri Ethics Commission and currently serves on the board of governors of the Missouri Bar Association. Greenwell's appointment is for a term ending Jan. 1, 2011.

Haber has taught at the Park Hill School District for 30 years. She is a Spanish and French teacher at Park Hill High School. Haber holds a bachelor's degree in secondary education from Southwest Missouri State University (now Missouri State University), and a master's degree in education from UMKC. Haber's appointment is for a term ending Jan. 1, 2014.

Environmental Studies Conference 2008: Nourish the Future

A call for papers, presentations and art.

Now is the time to start thinking about possible topics and presentations and creating art for the Environmental Studies Conference and the ARTSEnvironmental Gallery Show.

Consider designing school research or art projects to fit into an environmental studies topic. Papers and presentations from all disciplines and backgrounds will be accepted since environmental studies is an interdisciplinary topic.

To submit a proposal, e-mail a concise abstract to blw456@truman.edu. Proposals will be accepted through March 31. Conference and Art Show submissions are open to students, faculty and Kirksville community members. For information about Earth Week events, go to <http://earth.truman.edu>.

Undergraduate Summer Tuition Discounted by 15 Percent

University President Barbara Dixon has approved continuing the tuition discount program for undergraduate on-campus 2008 summer classes. Designed to encourage enrollment by students seeking a double major, minors, or simply wanting to accelerate their progress, this program reduces per credit hour rates by 15 percent. Details on the new fee schedule are in the Summer Schedule of Classes and students were also notified of this change by e-mail. The discount applies only to on-campus undergraduate courses, and excludes interim courses, graduate courses, and study abroad programs.

Truman Opera Theatre Presents “Così fan tutte”

Truman Opera Theatre presents “Così fan tutte” by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart at 8 p.m. March 27-28 and 3 p.m. March 29-30 in the Ophelia Parrish Performance Hall.

This two-act comic opera, sung in English, revolves around a wager made by two young men with their older friend that their sweethearts, two sisters, are steadfast and faithful in the love they have for the two men. In order to put that love to the test, the young men pretend to go off to war and return disguised as foreigners who try to woo the two sisters.

Shirley McKamie, lecturer in music, will give a pre-opera lecture one hour before each performance in Ophelia Parrish Room 2340.

Tickets are $7 for adults, $4 for students, and are on sale from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. in the Ophelia Parrish lobby and will also be available at the door before each performance. For more information call 785.4433 or e-mail thueber@truman.edu.

Hammond Named as Justice on 2008 Model United Nations International Court of Justice

Daniel Hammond, a freshman political science major from Liberty, Mo., has been named as a judge on the 2008 Model United Nations International Court of Justice (ICJ). The ICJ has 15 members and is one of the major organs of the United Nations. It is responsible for arbitrating international disputes brought before it by United Nations member-states. Its decisions are binding and can be enforced by action of the U.N. Security Council.

As a judge, Hammond will hear and vote upon two hypothetical cases and one historical case brought before the Model Court during the conference, to take place this November in Chicago. The advocates (attorneys) arguing the cases will be fellow students from other academic institutions representing several United Nations member-states. In 2007, Truman's Canadian delegation argued a historical case before the ICJ.

For more information on the Model United Nations program, contact Jeff Justice, assistant professor of political science, at 785.7243 or at jjustice@truman.edu.

Nursing Students, Faculty Attend Advocacy Day

Truman State University Department of Nursing faculty Stephen Hadwiger, Stephanie Powelson, Pam Melvin and Corrie Willis accompanied senior nursing students to Jefferson City for Missouri Nurse Advocacy Day on Feb. 12. The students visited with Rep. Rebecca McClanahan, Sen. Wes Shoemyer, and other legislators and professional representatives regarding health care issues in Missouri.

The Department of Communication and the Ad and PR Club present “The Art and Science of Word of Mouth Marketing”

Speaker Willow Baum-Lundgreen will present at 6 p.m. March 26 in Barnett Hall 1211.

Baum-Lundgreen is a business activist, entrepreneur, writer and new school marketer for the social media age. Her clients have included Anheuser-Busch, Coca-Cola, Gillette, Aerosmith, Christina Aguilera, Jewel, Compuserve and IBM. She will discuss what it's like working in today's technologically networked world. Admission is free.

NOTABLES

Jon Beck, associate professor of computer science, presented his paper titled "Fair Division as a Means of Apportioning Software Engineering Class Projects" at SIGCSE08 March 13 in Portland, Ore. With more than 1,200 attendees, SIGCSE is the largest conference of computer science educators in the world.

An original musical composition by Warren Gooch, professor of music, was selected for broadcast on the radio show "New Music Soapbox" on WOBC-FM in Oberlin, Ohio. Gooch's composition "The Harvest Moon" for mixed choir was broadcast March 5, in a performance by Truman's Cantoria under the direction of Mark Jennings, assistant professor of music. The weekly radio show features contemporary music by American composers. "The Harvest Moon" will also be performed March 28 at the College Music Society Great Plains/Great Lakes 2008 conference at Illinois State University. The performance will be by the Illinois State University Concert Choir under the direction of Karyl Carlson. An original musical composition by Gooch has been selected for performance at the 2008 University of Nebraska-Kearney New Music Festival. The composition, titled "The View from the Tower," is scored for voice, tuba and piano. It will be performed at the festival, which takes place April 14-15. Daniel Mandell, associate professor of history, has been awarded a Summit Scholar(ship) to attend the 2008 meeting on the University and the Jewish Community, March 24-26 in Washington, D.C., with the theme "Imagining a More Civil Society." The meeting will feature workshops with speakers ranging from PBS's Judy Woodruff to the presidents of about 20 universities including the University of Pennsylvania, Tufts, and Hampshire College. Mandell also published his article "Subaltern Indians, Race, and Class in Early America," in "Class Matters: Early North America and the Atlantic World," eds. Simon Middleton and Billy G. Smith (University of Pennsylvania Press).

Jason McDonald, Department of History, will present "Crossing the Border and Confronting Boundaries: Mexican Immigrant Encounters with Racial Segregation in Early Twentieth-Century Austin, Texas," at the Pacific Northwest American Studies Association's conference on "Migrations, Translations, Relocations: The Global Within" April 11 in Walla Walla, Wash.

Sturgeon Selected as Nominee for National Graduate Fellowship

The Truman chapter of the Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi is pleased to announce the selection of John Sturgeon as its nominee for the National Graduate Fellowship.

Sturgeon is a senior accounting and economics double major from Omaha, Neb. He has been incredibly active on Truman's campus. He has held a variety of leadership positions for a number of student organizations, including serving as treasurer and president for Beta Theta Pi.

His leadership and performance in the latter position earned national recognition for both his chapter and himself. Sturgeon has also volunteered his time with several campus organizations, such as Campus PALS, Habitat for Humanity, and the Catholic Newman Center. After completing his undergraduate degree, he plans to pursue a Masters of Accountancy degree and hopes to become a certified public accountant.
