Festival at noon, April 22,
on the Mall.

Fontaine C. Piper Named Head of Truman's Human Potential and Performance Division

Fontaine C. Piper, professor and director of health and exercise sciences, has been chosen to serve as head of Truman's Human Potential and Performance
Division, effective July 1.
Piper succeeds Cornelius W.
Koustaal, who retired last year.

Piper has served on a number of committees while at Truman, including Faculty Senate, Undergraduate Council, Council of Teacher Education, Graduate Council, University Committee on Conduct, Sexual Harassment Committee, and University Equal Employment Opportunities Committee.

"I know that Fontaine will be a good addition to our administrative group," said Garry Gordon, Vice President of Academic Affairs. "He is a team player and person of integrity. His work ethic is unexcelled and I know that he understands and loves Truman."

Piper has also served on the Board of Directors for the Central States Chapter American College of Sports Medicine, as secretary and member of Strategic Planning Committee for the AAHPERD Aquatic Council, as research chairperson for the Missouri AAHPERD, and as the chapter chair for the Adair County American Red Cross.

Piper earned his bachelor of science degree in health and physical education and a specialist degree in educational administration from Northeast Missouri State University, his master's degree in junior college administration from Southern Illinois University, and his doctorate in electromyographic biomechanics and anatomy from the University of Illinois at Champaign-Urbana. He also served a three-year term in the Navy before his college career.

Children's Lit Festival Celebrates 19th Year

Approximately 1,500 fourth-, fifth- and sixth-grade students will participate in the 19th Annual Truman State University Children's Literature Festival from 9 a.m. to 2:15 p.m., April 12, on the Truman campus.

Students will participate in 30-minute sessions with guest authors and illustrators. All children attending the program must be pre-registered. University students, faculty, staff and Kirksville community members are welcome to attend any of the sessions, but they must also be pre-registered. Interested people are welcome to attend an informal meeting with the authors and illustrators from 3-4 p.m. in the SUB Conference Room.

Visiting authors and illustrators include:
Raymond Bial, Sneed Collard III, Lisa
Campbell Ernst, Carol Gorman, Jan
Greenberg, Jane Kurtz, Laurie Lawlor, David Patneaude, Claudia Mills and Roland Smith. The authors' books are available at the Truman Bookstore.

The festival will conclude with a dinner at 6 p.m. in the SUB Alumni Room. The dinner is limited to pre-registered adults and children accompanied by an adult. The cost of the dinner is $8.75. Smith will give a presentation at 7 p.m. in the SUB Alumni Room.

For more information, contact Ann McEndarfer at 785.6010.
