NOTES:

- WE = Writing Enhanced course
- The ENG (BA) is extremely flexible; the plan above is intended to illustrate a typical distribution of courses from various areas of the program
- Only grades of “C” and above are accepted toward the English degree.
- Up to 8 combined credits of practical application courses may count toward the BA English major. These courses included ENG 327 and CRWT/ENG/LING 451 & 452.
- Coursework for the English major is divided into the following:
    - Part I: Common Experiences - three courses, 8 credit hours;
    - Part II: Guided Exploration - three courses, one from each of three areas, 9-12 credit hours;
    - Part III: Electives - additional 14-17 hours of approved coursework to total a minimum of 34 credits, a minimum of 20 credits must be at the 300-level or above.
- Ofstad Visiting Scholar courses may count toward the degree program — details will be included in open course lists
