

Asian Studies Minor: Option I - East Asian Worksheet

Name: _____

Banner ID: _____

Email: _____

Indicate which courses you have taken to fulfill the requirements of the East Asian Option of the Asian Studies Minor. Intermediate language proficiency is required in either Japanese or Chinese. An additional 12 credit hours must be completed by choosing one course from each of the three areas listed below. At least two courses must be at or above the 300-level. NOTES: In order to be accepted as fulfilling part of the minor, all English courses listed here must have the subject listed and the instructor's initials certifying that the topic is appropriate to this minor. Any course substitutions from other institutions listed on this form must be approved separately using the university-wide form for course substitutions. Students must attach a copy of their most current "Degree Works" form (highlight applicable courses). If courses taken at other institutions do not yet show up on Degree Works you must attach a copy of the approved Substitution Form for each.
