Local Broadcast of Commencement

Truman State University will live stream the ceremony on the Truman website. There will be space available for viewing in the Down Under in the SUB.

Inclement Weather Plans

PROCESSION

In the event of inclement weather, an email will be sent to the graduates before 9 a.m. on Saturday, May 11, 2019. It will also be posted on the Truman website and posted on social media.

COMMENCEMENT CEREMONY

In the case of inclement weather, the Commencement ceremony will be held in Pershing Arena. Four inclement weather tickets are issued to each degree candidate and must be presented for entrance into Pershing Arena. Tickets issued to candidates will be ceremony and time specific and must be presented for entrance. These tickets do not guarantee seating; seating is on a first-come, first-seated basis. There will be two ceremonies in this unlikely event and details can be found online at <http://www.truman.edu/commencement/emergency-rain-site-plan/>.

Inclement weather tickets are intended to help the University monitor the number of people entering Pershing Arena to prevent overcrowding. No additional tickets are available due to the size of the graduating class. Live stream viewing of the Commencement Ceremony will be available in the Down Under of the SUB or via any internet connection accessing the live stream link on the Registrar's website under Commencement for family and friends who do not have tickets for Pershing Arena.

RECEPTION

In the event of inclement weather, the reception will be held in the Hub of the Student Union Building.
