

Economics at Truman

 DISTINCT BY DESIGN

Degrees offered

BAB BS
Economics

Minor offered Economics

100%
of Economics majors
complete research.

67

approximate
number of students in the major

44

approximate
number of students
in this minor

4

full-time faculty members

2

part-time faculty members

100% of faculty have a terminal degree

Recent internships held by students include

- United States Treasury, Washington, D.C. – 18 student interns have been placed since Fall 2004.
- H & R Block Headquarters, Kansas City, Missouri
- FDIC, St. Louis, Missouri
- The Independent Institute, Sacramento, CA
- Federal Reserve Bank, Kansas City, Missouri
- National Credit Union Association, Washington, D.C.

65% of Economics graduates enter the workforce directly.

Notable employers of Economics graduates include

- Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve
- Boeing
- Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City
- Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis
- Missouri Public Service Commission
- Wells Fargo
- United States Agency for International Development

35% of Economics graduates have chosen to attend graduate school.

Notable graduate and professional schools that Economics graduates have attended include

- Johns Hopkins University
- Michigan State University
- University of Illinois
- University of Missouri
- Washington University in St. Louis
- University of California – Berkeley
- Duke University
- University of Chicago

“The interesting and engaging Economics professors have challenged me to grow as a student and have cared about me as a person. Interactions with my professors and classmates foster an environment of continued learning, and the program’s emphasis on providing visiting speakers guarantees that we are routinely exposed to fresh ideas.”

– LILLIAN BRNK, Class of 2020

Academic Interests: Economics major, interdisciplinary research titled “The Potency of Envy”

Student Organizations: Student Activities Board, Cardinal Key, High Street Dancers, Voci Women’s Chorus, National Society of Collegiate Scholars, Phi Kappa Phi

Hometown: Liberty, Missouri

For more information

Visit economics.truman.edu

